ARMIDALE

DEAR COLLEAGUES,

On behalf of the Provincial Surgeons of Australia, it is with pleasure that we invite you to register for the 53rd PSA 2017 Annual Scientific Conference - Bookends of Surgical Practice, to be held in Armidale, NSW, from Thursday 19 - Saturday 21 October, 2017.

A compelling scientific program highlighting key areas of Rural Surgery, and a social program designed to showcase the natural beauty and history of the New England region, are just some of the reasons why you should visit Armidale this October.

Located within driving distance of Sydney, Brisbane and the Gold Coast, and easily accessible by plane, the ease of getting to Armidale and all it has to offer makes the city and surrounding region the perfect place to be this spring. The weather will be at its best to enjoy a plethora of natural wonders including stunning national parks and gorges as well as galleries, museums, fine dining and wines.

We look forward to welcoming you to Armidale and New England this October.

Yours sincerely,

Assoc Prof Graham Stewart, FRACS
Scientific Convenor

WORKSHOPS

MAXIMISING YOUR EARNINGS WHILE IN PRIVATE PRACTICE

KEEP YOUR FINANCES IN LINE, FROM BEGINNING TO END

FRIDAY 20 OCTOBER, 2017

07:00-08:30

TAS Hoskins Centre

$FREE including breakfast

Please note there are limited places available*

As a hard-working surgeon, the world of finance can sometimes feel like an overwhelming, never-ending stack of decisions, with nothing more than good fortune keeping everything in line. But what happens when things start to domino?

Money management is an undeniably important part of your surgical career. While in private practice, it's vital to remember that the financial decisions you make today will impact how you are rewarded now and into the future.

Regardless of where you are in your General Surgical career, this wealth management workshop is a not-to-be-missed event.

The Bongiorno National Network will be covering key areas that will help to ensure you're making the right financial decisions to protect yourself in the years to come.

FOUNDATION SKILLS FOR SURGICAL EDUCATORS

PRESENTED BY THE ROYAL AUSTRALASIAN COLLEGE OF SURGEONS

WEDNESDAY 18 OCTOBER, 2017

Armidale Bowling Club - Tops Function Room

08:45 - 16:30

$FREE Registration

The Foundation Skills for Surgical Educators - aimed at Fellows, IMGs and Senior SET Trainees - is an introductory course to expand knowledge and skills in surgical teaching and education.

The aim of the course is to establish a basic standard expected of RACS surgical educators and will further educate in teaching and learning concepts. Participants will look at how these concepts can be applied into their own teaching context and will have the opportunity to reflect on their own personal strengths and weaknesses as an educator.

With the release of the RACS Action Plan: Building Respect, Improving Patient Safety, the Foundation Skills for Surgical Educators course is now MANDATORY for Surgeons who are involved in the training and assessment of RACS SET Trainees.

The course will cover such topics as:

- Understanding myself as a teacher
- Planning a learning process
- Understanding and supporting learning
- Recognising teaching and learning opportunities
- Feedback
- Assessment
